

The New York State Society of Professional Engineers, Inc.

The Founding Society of the National Society of Professional Engineers

ASCE

LOWER HUDSON VALLEY BRANCH

American Society of Civil Engineers

Professional Engineers in Construction, a practice Division of the New York State Society of Professional Engineers (NYSSPE), is having a seminar on THE BENEFITS OF STRUCTURAL MASONRY on October 13, 2009 at 5:45PM in McLaren Engineering lecture hall, 100 Snake Hill Road, West Nyack, NY. The program speaker is Keith Lashway, P.E. from the International Masonry Institute. The keynote speaker is Past President of our Branch and ASCE Fellow Dr. Jim Yarmus, P.E., current president of NYSSPE. Engineers from the New York City Metropolitan area and as far away as Sullivan County will be attending this informative event.